ARREST REPORT (Additional Narrative)

Agency Name Gainesville Police Department	ORI FL0010100	Date/Time Arrested 09/03/2015 20:07	Case # 0215016802
Arrestee Name SHEPHERD, DONALD E			Arrest Number 118410

vehicle. VIC provided GPD with copies of the letter. In the eyes of the state of Florida, the vehicle legally belongs to her.

According to the notarized letter from VIC's uncle dated 08/29/2015, the VIC's uncle has had power of attorney since 07/21, 2015. In the same letter the VIC's uncle authorized the giving of the vehicle to VIC and VIC's husband on 08/07/2015. VIC's grandmother was still alive at this time.

The VIC's grandmother, had passed away on 08/12/2015. After the passing the DEF was present with the VIC and VIC's family when they were discussing what to do with the vehicle. VIC stated that DEF had stated that he wanted the vehicle and even offered to pay what the vehicle would bring as scrap metal. DEF was told no and then was asked to leave as this was a family discussion. VIC stated that she was going to give the vehicle to her brother who lives in California. VIC stated it was easier for her to take ownership of the vehicle since she lives here in Florida and would be easier to transfer the vehicle to her brother.

The day after the deceased's funeral, DEF along with the VIC's husband were cleaning out the deceased apartment. DEF while assisting VIC's husband, DEF again asked if he could have the vehicle. DEF was again told no.

VIC stated that at this particular time, VIC was working with her uncle to get the necessary paperwork to show transfer of the vehicle to her from the uncle. The VIC went to retrieve the vehicle on Aug 28 and the vehicle was gone. On Aug 29, VIC discovered where the DEF lived. VIC drove to DEF's residence where they found the vehicle, which was backed into DEF's driveway next to DEF's personal silver minivan and the DEF standing next to the VIC's vehicle, and took a picture.

VIC contacted GPD on 08/31/2015 for assistance in going out to the DEF's residence to attempt to locate the vehicle. The vehicle was not located and DEF was not home. At that time, GPD Ofc. Devito #884 left a voicemail for DEF to contact GPD about the vehicle and also left a message with DEF's roommate for DEF to contact GPD. DEF had not contacted GPD.

Pieces of evidence to support PC include: picture taken at the DEF's home where the vehicle is shown parked next to DEF's silver van and DEF standing next to the VIC's vehicle. Two copies of a letter from VIC's uncle in California giving the vehicle to VIC. One copy is legally notarized by a Notary Republic. A copy of the Power of Attorney (which was witnessed by the DEF) that was given to VIC's uncle giving uncle control of deceased affairs. A title of ownership for the vehicle issued by the State of Florida, a registration for the vehicle issued by the state of Florida. Copy of the deceased death certificate.

Made contact with DEF and advised (recited) DEF of his Miranda warnings. DEF stated that he understood his rights and immediately advised he wanted a lawyer.

DEF was ID'd by FL DL.
