Paul,

Were you able to schedule a meeting with Kim? The owner of the Sanders land is getting increasingly antsy having to hold off the other buyer and his engineers from proceeding with the entitlement work. He really does not want to stall much longer.

When can I tell him we will definitively be back to him?

I apologize, we have mandatory Pre-Submittal meeting with contractors and are finalizing scopes for design and can't find a spot to meet with the Super next week. Kim will reach out to you.

Subject: ACPS Appraisal

Hi Dan,

I wanted to provide you an update because it sounds like the seller is anxious. We are meeting on this coming Monday morning to review and discuss the appraisal internally.

Best,

Suzanne
